

Washhouse Court

One of the earliest parts of the Charterhouse, this atmospheric courtyard was originally used for all the services - laundry, bakery, kitchens - for the monks.

The original cobbles and patterned brick walls of the court gives a unique sense of another century. The space is perfect for photoshoots, product launches, fashion events, filming and much more.

