

Wedding ceremony and drinks package | 2025-2026

the Charterhouse

We understand that your wedding day is one of the most important moments in your life, and that you want it to be perfect. Whether you envisage an intimate ceremony or a grand celebration, we are here to help you create an unforgettable day.

Our fascinating history makes us a unique and truly atmospheric venue. The Charterhouse was once home to medieval Carthusian monks and Tudor nobility, and our stunning buildings, interiors and courtyard gardens provide a perfect backdrop for photography. We also have an accessible central London address.

If you're planning a civil ceremony, please check with Islington Town Hall to ensure they have availability on your preferred date

Dearest Adele and Adriana,

We've been very happily married for just over two months, and we wanted to share our heartfelt thanks to you both.

For your patient and kind support throughout the whole process and for exceeding our expectations of the most joyous and atmospheric day. Adele I will be forever grateful for your serene presence and impeccable support all day and especially just before I walked down the aisle.

The Charterhouse and The Norfolk Cloister will always hold the most special place in our hearts and memories.

Thank you (and all the team) for everything. Love
Michelle & Paul B
